OLD GLORY WAVES PROUDLY ABOVE M'KINLEY HIGH

Nation's Banner is Hoisted on New Pole With Appropriate Ceremonies

For the first time in the history of the institution, the Stars and Stripes yesterday were hoisted above the McKinley high school in Victoria street, the occasion being made one of speech-making and patriotic music.

The flag-raising ceremony was held at 4:30 o'clock, about the new flag-pole recently erected by the board of supervisors. Aside from the students, those in attendance were Prof. Marion M. Scott, Mayor John C. Lane, Prof. L. G. Blackman, Mrs. Theodore Richards, Henry W. Kinney, George S. Raymond and M. E. Baird.

After Professor Scott had called the student body to order, Joseph Sticker, class leader, who received the flag on behalf of the school, gave an interesting resume of the history of the American flag. This was followed by the singing of "The Star-Spangled Banner" by the students, accompanied by the Hawaiian Band. Professor Scott also delivered a brief address.

Mayor Lane's talk dealt with the need of respect to the American flag, and the essentials of true citizenship. The flag was then unfurled by a "color guard" composed of Misses Lillian Penell, Wilma Wallace, Ruth Hoe and Y. Motisaga.

Lively patriotic airs by the Hawaiian Band completed the program. The flag was presented to the school by the department of public works.

BOY PLEADS TO REMAIN AWAY FROM PARENT

"I don't want to go back home, with him," was what a 15-year-old Portuguese lad told Judge Whitney in the juvenile court this morning when informed that he was to return to his father. The lad added strength to his words with big tears welling in his eyes.

This little incident was one of the most impressive that occurred in the morning session. Two men, the father and an uncle of the boy, appeared separately to plead for the little fellow's care.

Testimony brought out the fact that the father had kept the boy from school to work with him and that the boy had been afraid of his stepmother. On the other hand, the lad clung to his uncle and godfather, who had placed him in school and been kind to him. The uncle pleaded eloquently.

"A Night in Sodom" was the subject of a stirring lecture delivered by Evangelist McCord last night in the Opera House. After a selection on the harp by Signor de Nufrio, the evangelist said in part:

"The question of sex is as old as sin. It was sexual indulgence more than anything else that brought about the destruction of the antediluvian world. It was polygamy and the unlawful intermarriage of the sons of God, the descendants of Seth, with the daughters of men, the descendants of Cain, that led to such unparalleled wickedness, and the Lord, in mercy to the race, had to sweep them away by the deluge. See Gen. 4:3; 6:1, 2.

"After the flood the same course was pursued by the cities of the plains. Sodom and Gomorrah were ripe for destruction, and sexual indulgence, more than anything else, brought about the ruin of these cities. Behold, this was the iniquity of thy sister, Sodom. Pride, fullness of bread and abundance of idleness.

"Neither did she strengthen the hand of the poor and needy, therefore I took them away as I saw good." Eze. 16:49, 50.

"Just four sins caused the downfall of Sodom, namely, pride, gluttony, laziness and selfishness. These vices may seem to be highly respectable, but they made Sodom what it was, and wherever this quartet of vices is found there you will find another Sodom.

"The story of the destruction of the antediluvian world and the holocaust of the cities of the plains has been written for our admonition, upon whom the ends of the world are come." 1st Cor. 10:11. If the cities of the plains contain a message for one class above another it is surely the so-called upper class. Here we find the sins of Sodom in full swing. Pride, gluttony, idleness and selfishness have held full sway in high society. We have Sodom in the 'upper world,' and Sodom in the 'underworld.' Sodom among the '400' and Sodom among the submerged 'ten-th.' Sodom in the palace and Sodom in the shack; in fact, Sodom is in full blast everywhere.

"It was the angel of the Lord that delivered Lot from Sodom, but in order for Lot to effect an escape he had to leave all his possessions behind. The Lord today will save us from modern Sodom, but like Lot, it will take renunciation on our part. May the Lord speedily deliver us from the sins of Sodom and every other vile thing and transform us into His own image is my prayer."

Subject for tonight, "World Famous Pictures—The Wonders of a Million Suns." A free illustrated lecture, so come early to get a good seat.

VAUGHAN PROBABLY WILL BE JUDGE ON AND AFTER MAY 15

District Attorney Horace W. Vaughan, whose nomination as judge of the local United States district court has been confirmed, probably will take the oath of office and otherwise qualify as federal jurist, May 15.

KAIMUKI WANTS PARK AND SEEKS GOOD LOCATION

Kaimuki again has the park appetite. At a meeting of the improvement club out there the other night, A. F. Cooke stated that a block of five acres in the Palolo section, on which the Kaimuki tennis club grounds is situated, was available for park purposes. He had proposed to Land Commissioner Rivenburgh the matter of an exchange of public land somewhere for the grounds mentioned.

Mr. Cooke is chairman of the parks committee of the club, and the subject was referred to that committee with instructions to report at next meeting. The crater lot, formerly the site of Kaimuki reservoir, was discussed as another possibility. This lot was some years ago virtually promised to the club for a park, the understanding being that the club would improve and take care of it. Nothing, however, has ever been done about the place.

The Palolo lot now being considered is level and well adapted for a playground, needing only some little filling, while the crater lot can only be utilized for a resting park, with a fine view thrown in, where flowers might be cultivated and a tea house erected as attractions.

in broken English for the guardianship of the boy, but the court held to the fact the other man was his father and therefore entitled to his care.

"It will be his last chance," Judge Whitney said to the interpreter. "We'll give him this one time more to see if he can treat the boy as he should. He must put him back in school and keep him there during school age."

The youngster hung back after the decree had been pronounced, declaring over and over, "I don't want to go with him."
